A Correction.

Monday's issue of the Enterprise contained the statement that Mayor Zollinger, of Fort Wayne, had united the runaway girl from this city, in marriage to the negro in the Sells Brothers' band. We have since received the following letter from that gentleman:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, CITY OF FORT WAYNE, ALLEN COTNEY, IND., C. A. ZOLLINGER, MAYOR, AUGUST 19th, 1870.

Messrs. Winter & Moore, GENTLEMEN:—Your statement in last Monday's paper is false. I did not marry a white girl to a negro, on that Friday, or any other day. The party who gave you your information is an unmitigated liar whoever he may be. Please make correction and oblige, Yours truly,

C. A. ZOLLINGER,

Mayor.

In reply to the mayor's indignation, we have this only to say—we caught the rumor "on the fly," or to use an original phrase, on the trapeze. We are as liable to be imposed upon as any other "snapper up" of unconsidered trifles.

The foregoing is a kind of correction yet not such as the circumstances of the case seemed to call for, as the charge made against Mayor Zollinger was certainly a very grave one. The original phrase "on the trapeze" is both original and unique. It was evident that the Enterprise did not consider the affair an "unconsidered trifle" when it devoted a couple of columns to the alleged particulars thereof, nor did Mayor Zollinger look upon the statement that he had married a young and innocent maiden to a big burly negro as an "unconsidered trifle."

Mounted Democracy.

The Wayne township Democratic club at the junction has organized a mounted cavalry company and elected the following officers: Captain, Adam Francis; First Lieutenant, John G. Beyerlein; Second Lieutenant, J. A. Burt; Orderly Sergeant, Raburn W. Beeson; Second Sergeant, Frank Perregay; Third Sergeant, Hugh M. Rockhill; Corporals, Jesse Rockhill, William Ackerman, John Cartwright, Isaac France. The officers of the Junction Club have heretofore been published in these columns. The Wayne township Democrats are fully aroused to the importance of the present political struggle and they will speak with no uncertain sound on the second Tuesday of October.

NEWS BY THE WIRES.

A Big Blaze at Minneapolis, Minn.

Indiscriminate Shooting in Kansas and Missouri.

Two Negroes and a White Man Killed and a White Man Fatally Wounded.

Information From Everywhere.

St. Paul, Minn., August 23.—At two o'clock this morning a fire was discovered in the Mansard roof of the paper warehouse of Averill, Russell & Carpenter, on Lower Third street.

The flames gained ground rapidly and the fire department was slow and inefficient. The fire soon spread to the roof of P. H. Kelley & Company's wholesale grocery store, next to the paper warehouse building, and both were soon wrapped in flames.

The combustible material in the grocery burned swiftly and the paper stock buildings were burned before the fire was checked. Kelley's store was a shapeless ruin and the walls of Averill, Russell & Carpenter's warehouse are left standing. The fire burned with incredible swiftness and ferocity and there was much danger in being near it. It was rumored a man was killed by the fall of Kelly's house, which fell into the street without warning at three o'clock.

This cannot be verified. The adjoining stores of Beaupre, Allen & Keogh, and the temporary buildings of Awerbach, Finck, Culbertson & Co., burned last winter, were saved with great difficulty and Beaupre, Allen & Keogh suffered a loss of $10,000, covered by insurance. The buildings occupied by Averill, Russell & Carpenter were owned by Gasper Wood and A. W. Hale.

They cost $45,000 and were insured for $12,000. Kelly's building owned by the late W. S. Wright cost $60,000 and was insured for $20,000. The loss of Kelley & Co. is estimated at $400,000, insured for about $300,000. Loss of Averill, Russell & Carpenter, $125,000, insured for $77,500.

Following are the names of the companies obtainable: Averill, Russell & Carpenter, Total North British and Mercantile, $5,000; Hartford Fire, $2,500; London & Lancashire, $2,500; London Assurance, $5,000; Commercial $2,500, Home, of New York; Union, London, $5,000; People's, Newark, N. The VanHultz brothers returned the fire, killing Stock and severely wounding another man named Alexander. The VanHultz brothers surrendered to the officers and have the sympathy of the citizens.

An American Missionary Brutally Murdered.

London, August 23.—A correspondent at Bucharest gives the following additional details of the murder of Dr. Parsons, the American Missionary. One of the assassins placed the muzzle of his rifle close to Dr. Parsons' servant, fired and killed him instantly. Dr. Parsons then started up but before he could say or do anything a bullet pierced his heart. The two Circassians then threw the bodies over a precipice, at the foot of which they were found after a few days. An American residing at Asmidt telegraphed to Goschen, the British Ambassador, who communicated them immediately to the American Consul General. A squad of soldiers was sent to the camp of the Circassians and threatened to shoot the whole tribe unless the murderers surrendered, whereupon the murderers were delivered to the authorities. The affair caused great consternation at Constantinople and people travel armed and, if possible, with an armed guard when riding or driving in the suburbs.

TO YOUNG MEN.
A Sure Cure.

The awful effect of early vice, which brings organic weakness, destroying both mind and body with all its dreadful ills, PERMANENTLY CURED. The results before consumption sets in are palpitation of the heart, timidity, trembling, nervous discharges, drowsiness, etc., with those sad conditions of mind so much to be feared, forgetfulness, chaos of ideas, sadness of spirit, ugly imagining, dislike in social life and brooding melancholy. Married men, or those entering on that happy life, aware of physical debility, excitability of the nervous organic diminition, or other irregularities, quickly assisted.

A quick cure guaranteed. NO MINERAL USED. Young people losing their health, spending time with pretending quacks and unsuitable treatment, forcing diseases into their bodies with deadly poisons, causing fatal disorders to the head, throat, nose, liver and lungs, stomach and bowels, speedily cured. Mrs. W. A. Beane, of Goshen, and Mrs. T. P. Keator, of Wabash, were the only editors' wives present at the Editorial Convention in this city. It was pleasant to see them present in the Convention taking an interest in the business of their husbands, and we would suggest that when the Convention meets at Wabash that all the members take their wives, as their presence in the different sessions of the Convention will make it more interesting and pleasant.—Warsaw Republican.

That would be a capital arrangement for the fortunate Faber manipulators whose hearthstones are made radiant with the smiles and joyousness of a loving helpmeet, but what would the unfortunate old bachelors of the profession do under the circumstances? Everything has its dark side in this life.

A Libel on Our Girls.

The Churubusco Herald man thus boldly libels the Fort Wayne girls and we desire to whisper gently into his ear to give this city a wide berth in the future, as our maidens will be watching for him. He or him:

A Fort Wayne girl, visiting friends here, and whose name we won't mention for fear it might hurt some one's feelings, stepped into Mayer & Eichhold's one day last week and asked Sam, "How high do the numbers of your ladies' shows run?" "17s," replied Sam. The angel sighed wearily, dropped into a chair and held out her foot. "Build me a last," she said, and Sam went out to see Phil Ryan about getting some bridge timbers.

The Democratic Young Men's First Voters' club has been complimented by being detailed as an escort to the orators of the evening and they will perform the duty allotted to them in a graceful manner. They will hold a meeting to-morrow evening for the purpose of perfecting arrangements for the event, at which it is earnestly hoped every member of the organization will be present. The young men of the present day are being recognized as an important factor in matters political, and here in Fort Wayne their services to the cause will always receive due consideration.

ROME'S RATIFICATION.

Which was Addressed by Congressman Colerick.

[Correspondence of the SENTINEL.] Rome City, August 23.—Congressman W. G. Colerick, of Fort Wayne, addressed one of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings Friday night that has been held in Noble county during the present campaign. The speaker spoke on the general political issues of the day. He handled the great subjects of the day in such an easy, gentlemanly manner—using no abuse to the opposite party—that even some of the rankest leaders of the Republican party could not restrain from complimenting him. Mr. Colerick is a gentleman who, when he addresses a public meeting, bases his subject on facts, not on abuse of the opposite party, like his opponent, Judge Taylor, who is conducting the campaign in party abuse, and who is the means of the party losing one vote out of every ten of the meetings that he addresses. In behalf of the citizens of Rome City we extend an invitation to Mr. Colerick to favor us with another speech during the campaign. We also invite Judge Taylor to be present.

Why don't the Republicans hire $200.00 Williams to address them.

Who were the officers elected at the young (?) men's Garfield and Arthur club last Tuesday night? Where was the meeting held and who was Mr. Taylor, of Indianapolis?

Mr. Dodge, the accommodating landlord of the Sylvian Lake house, displayed the red, white and blue in honor of W. G. Colerick last evening. "One by one the roses fall."

Judge Skillen's hurrah for Weaver is growing weaker every day. We think by November he will be a converted Democrat.

Quite a large crowd of railroad boys from Fort Wayne excorted here Saturday.

The Memory of Rev. D. P. Hartman.

[From the Warsaw Republican.] From the Fort Wayne SENTINEL

we learn that Rev. D. P. Hartman, of that city, died at Petoskey, Mich., on last Friday afternoon, August 13th.

Many of the readers of the Republican knew Rev. Hartman well as one of the pioneers of, and most zealous workers in the M. E. church in Northern Indiana, and knowing him, held him in high esteem for his superior qualities of mind and heart. The church has lost an able, faithful minister, and hundreds of families will feel that they have lost a friend and counselor of inestimable worth.

Tickets can be had of any of the committee, or at the north depot. Ample accommodations have been made for all who may wish to attend, and without doubt it will be one of the most pleasant excursions of the season.

Mme. DEMOREST'S

Patterns

Given

Away.

Mme. Demorest having broken faith with us, by putting her patterns on sale in two other establishments in town, and having failed to make good her promises to these two parties, as well as ourselves, we have decided to drop her patterns, very much as people drop a hot potato.

Tuesday morning, August 24th, we shall commence to dispose of them after this fashion: Every customer purchasing goods in any of our departments, to the amount of one dollar and upwards, will be handed a catalogue of Mme. Demorest's latest styles of patterns, from which they will be requested to select one pattern which they most desire. This will then be wrapped up with their goods free of charge. This system will be continued from day to day until the entire stock on hand has been given away. These patterns are for basques, train skirts, walking skirts, overskirts, walking costumes, princess dresses, wrappers, polonaises, c'o'iks, jackets, blouses, dolmans, ulsters, &c., for ladies and misses, also a full line of patterns for ladies' underwear, and for boys' and children's suits. There is not an old pattern in the entire lot.

As we are anxious to close them out at once, we hope our friends will not be backward in coming forward to secure them. The usual prices of these patterns are 20, 25, and 30 cents.

FOSTER BROS.
